FOREWORD

THE enormous task which we have taken unto ourselves in the pages that follow was not taken as a light task but as one which assumed the role of a major responsibility. It has been a great privilege and a pleasure to bring to you some of the episodes of our college days.

It is our sincere hope that in the years which lie ahead you may be able to thumb through these pages for a glimpse of an old classmate or friend and realize that all the success we may achieve was due to the interest manifested in us while at our dear ole Smith.

DEDICATION

IN grateful admission, sincere appreciation and hearty congratulations for a life well spent in helping to build a bigger and better Smith, and for invaluable assistance and guidance to many young men and women in the field of education, we the staff of the 1950 BULL respectfully dedicate this book as a culmination of their efforts to Dr. Robert L. Douglass, Mr. Stanley H. Adams and Mr. William C. Donnell.

THE BULL STAFF OF 1950

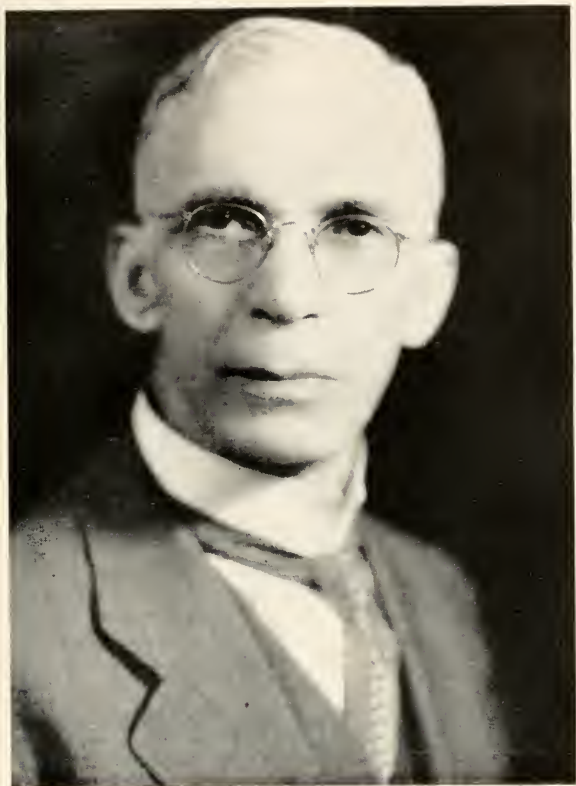

Nineteen hundred fifty marks the middle of a century which has been filled with phenomenal movements, developments and events. The list would include two devastating world wars, a world wide depression, political upheavals with the rise and fall of governments and empires; the growth of ideologies that challenge our own democracy and Christianity; gains and losses in economics, in religion and on the freedom front; advances in scientific discoveries and in the applications of science to the work of the world and the welfare of man; great strides in health and prolongation of life, in social welfare, in education, and in human relations.

Like a powerful bulldozer cutting a new highway through forest, rough terrane, and hills, such movements, developments, and events of the first half of the twentieth century have come a long way and fast. It is important that a follow-up crew come behind and smooth up the road bed over which man can move forward to peace, human dignity and rights, security, understanding, and a high and sustaining faith.

The makers and readers of this book have a great challenge and opportunity as they move into the second half of this dynamic and, till now, chaotic century. My wish is that Smith men and women may be adequate to such a challenge, which comes first to the Class of 1950. May Smith and you never fail.

My greetings and best wishes to each of you.

H. LISTON, President

DEAR CLASSMATES:

I wish everyone of you a prosperous life and may all of your dreams which you have dared dream come true. Remember always to keep the other cheek in condition to receive those unexpected slaps which life deals to us. Look to this day for yesterday is only a dream and tomorrow is only a vision of hope. Therefore, look to this day, for such is the pattern of life.

EDITORIAL

It was hard to believe, but true in every detail, the Golden Bulls of Johnson C. Smith University were the Iodine Bowl Champions of 1949. "Amazing" said some, "Terrific" said others, that this heretofore "weak" football team finally ripped and tore its way into a position among the rank and file of the Negro College Sports World. Perhaps the contingents of a school with a more successful football team would not be too elated over winning two games on the regular schedule, and a post season championship but to the followers of the Golden Bulls this achievement marked the beginning of a "New Day" for Smith.

Since 1945, the Sons and Daughters of the Gold and Blue saw what was once a mighty force in the C.I.A.A. peter out to be the team similar to that of Jerkwater U. Now Smith didn't fall down completely in each sport that she was represented in, for in 1945 and again in 1947 she sent a basketball team to the Championship Tournament of the C.I.A.A. But other than that, Smith has been a faithful financial member of the Association.

Just what was this phenomena that seemed to bring about a Neo development in the sport scenes at Smith? Well, the administration finally realized that it takes money and adequate coaching personnel to produce winners. With this in mind they went to work. Coach Byrd Crudup was made head of the Athletic Department, thus enabling him to direct his attention to a more intensified physical program for the entire University. Jack Brayboy, an immortal in the annals of great football players, returns to his Alma Mater as head football coach. And Calvin Irvin remained to continue his work as head basketball mentor. With a well experienced coaching staff the next step was to secure good players. Boys with good scholarship as well as great athletic ability are being inspired to win their laurels at Smith University.

The building up process is a slow one but Smith is well on her way. The future can certainly be looked forward to as being a bright one. To the Senior athletes who will be leaving with the class of '50, we will say "thanks fellows" for your efforts in pushing the name of the Gold and Blue to the fore once again.

1949 Football Season In Retrospect

Just for the sheer thrill of it, let's recapture some of the never-to-be-forgotten memories of the 1949 football season.

BOOM! RAH! Smith 40, St. Paul 0. Gosh! A real live victory; the first one in two years. We sure looked good that afternoon. Some Smith followers were saying "maybe an undefeated season." What optimism . . . It was short lived, for on the following Saturday . . .

St. Augustine 20, Smith 13. What happened? At half time we had them 13-7. And then, like a bolt from the heavens, St. Aug's Trojans were running all over the Bulls. That's O.K., we'll win next year.

Delaware State 7, Smith 10. Did we fool the critics on that one. The Bulls were great that afternoon.

Howard 31, Smith 0. You know they really have some pretty girls on Howard's Campus.

Homecoming—Smith 0, Winston-Salem 0. The mud was knee deep that day. Five times Smith was inside Winston-Salem's 20 yard line and five times the "Rams" held. A real heart breaker, but all of the Alumni had a good time.

North Carolina State 27, Smith 7. Is an alibi in order? All right, then we won't make up an alibi, but it wasn't as bad as the score sounds.

Shaw 20, Smith 7. This was said to be the best game the Smith Bulls played all season. Smith kicked one of the powerhouses of the C.J.A.A. around like puppets for three quarters, only to lose the game in the final stanza. Even so, the Smith team won the hearts of every fan in the stadium that Thanksgiving Day.

Smith 20, Allen 13. The Iodine Bowl Champs of 1949. This victory made the 1949 football season an unforgettable one for many of the Smith followers.
